Full job description

We are looking for Assistant Managers for Taco Bell Jesmond!

If you are currently looking for a stable full-time role within a Company with amazing career development opportunities - this is the role for you!

Back in '62 in Southern California, our courageous Godfather, Glen Bell, revolutionised food you could hold in your hands, and in your heart, with the introduction of the crunchy taco. Since then we've continued to be trailblazers inspiring more than 2 billion customers to Live Más each year at over 7,000 restaurants worldwide. Today, we are the largest Mexican-inspired restaurant chain across the globe... and now we are so excited to be down under, bringing amazing food to the people of Australia!

At Taco Bell, we feed people's lives with Más. We deliver Más Flavour, Más Heart and Más Value and this means we add more flavour to life and we do things differently.

People are our passion! We are on the hunt for exceptional leaders, from all levels of management. We need leaders who are passionate about what they do, motivated to inspire others, and who are driven to create amazing experiences, not only for our customers, but most importantly for our people!

By joining our Restaurant Management Team, you will...

Have held a supervisory or leadership role within a Quick Service Restaurant, or a fast-paced hospitality environment.

You have a demonstrated track record of workplace achievement in the selection, coaching and development of managerial employees.

You have good oral/written communication skills with exceptional team building capability.

You are passionate about providing excellence in execution of quality food, service, safety, cleanliness, and speed standards.

Nurture, mentor, and develop our new generation of leaders! We believe great leaders create new leaders!

Drive a strong restaurant culture through reward and recognition and help us embed a fun and inclusive environment (spontaneous dancing is encouraged!)

Have your voice heard by contributing ideas & suggestions to continually improve and refine our restaurant operations

Ensure our products are delicious, craveable, and #instaworthy

Ensure our customers leave with a smile and RING OUR BELL!

We embrace a diverse and inclusive environment and would love to hear from anyone who has a genuine desire to pursue a management career with us. If you have the passion to excel in a business environment and are motivated to drive your personal development, APPLY NOW!
